FIRST AMENDED CIVIL ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby avers as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This action has been initiated by Heather Needham (hereinafter referred to as “Plaintiff,” unless indicated otherwise) against (hereinafter referred to as “Defendants” when referred to collectively) for violations of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (“Title VII - 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000d et. seq.”) and the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act (“PHRA”).¹ As a direct consequence of Defendants’ unlawful actions, Plaintiff seeks damages as set forth herein.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court, in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1331, has jurisdiction over Plaintiff’s claims because this civil action arises under laws of the United States.

3. This Court may properly maintain personal jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants’ contacts with this State and this judicial district are sufficient for the exercise of jurisdiction over Defendants to comply with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice, satisfying the standard set forth by the United States Supreme Court in International Shoe Co. v. Washington, 326 U.S. 310 (1945) and its progeny. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's future state-law claim(s) because such claim(s) arise out of the same common nucleus of operative facts as her federal claims asserted herein.

4. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331(b)(1) and (b)(2), venue is properly laid in this district because all of the acts and/or omissions giving rise to the claims set forth herein occurred in this judicial district, and in addition, Defendants are deemed to reside where they are subject to personal jurisdiction, rendering Defendants residents of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

5. Plaintiff is proceeding herein under the Title VII and has exhausted her administrative remedies (with respect to her Title VII claims) by timely filing a Charge of Discrimination with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") and by filing the instant lawsuit within ninety (90) days of receiving a notice of dismissal and/or right to sue letter from the EEOC.

PARTIES

6. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

7. Plaintiff is an adult individual, with an address as set forth in the caption.

8. Defendants are nationwide entities with many locations (and operating through different corporate structures) providing waste-management and energy solutions (among other services) related to burning trash that in turn creates steam for electricity.

9. At all times relevant herein, Defendants acted by and through its agents, servants and employees, each of whom acted at all times relevant herein in the course and scope of their employment with and for Defendants.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

10. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

11. Plaintiff is a female.

12. Plaintiff was employed as a Facility Manager at Defendants' 10 Highland Avenue Chester, Pennsylvania 19013 location beginning in or about September 2019 until her unlawful termination (discussed further infra) on or about May 20, 2022.

13. Plaintiff was supervised directly by Defendants' Regional Vice President of Operations, Tim Gregan ("Gregan" – male), and Gregan reported to Senior Vice President of Operations, Rebecca ("Becky") Underwood ("Underwood" – female), to whom Plaintiff indirectly reported.

14. Gregan was not involved in Plaintiff's hiring, and instead Plaintiff was recruited and ultimately hired by Underwood.

15. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff was the first female hired as a Facility Manager within the history of the entirety of Defendants.

16. Defendants' divide their business operations into various "regions," and each region has approximately 10 plants.

17. Upon information and belief, Gregan has not utilized or hired females in any Facility Manager role in any of the plants he oversees.

18. During the course of her employment with Defendant, Plaintiff was a hard-working employee who performed her job well.

19. However, Plaintiff's work environment while employed with Defendant became extremely hostile as a result of the discrimination and disparate treatment that she observed and was subjected to by Gregan based on gender. For example, but not intended to be an exhaustive list, unlike Plaintiff's male colleagues, Gregan:

- a. unnecessarily opposed small or significant decisions Plaintiff made;
- b. continually questioned Plaintiff about her work and role;
- c. constantly asked other employees and staff about Plaintiff or tried to create unnecessary issues;
- d. blamed Plaintiff for broad plant issues that either Plaintiff had no control over, or that others above Plaintiff had made executive decisions regarding;
- e. treated other female employees of Defendant in a demeaning manner, and forced at least two female employees to do demeaning tasks for Gregan personally that were not part of their job duties² and Plaintiff witnessed these female employees cry on the job based on Gregan's demeaning treatment;
- f. treated Plaintiff in a really demeaning and antagonistic manner; and
- g. engaged in many other actions or inactions that made it clear Gregan preferred Plaintiff not work in her role (unrelated to Plaintiff's job performance or expertise).

20. Additionally, Gregan literally refused to talk to Plaintiff because she was a female, and frequently completely ignored Plaintiff and instead spoke only to male colleagues and subordinates.

21. Specifically, Gregan frequently bypassed passing directions/speaking to Plaintiff and instead directly directed her male subordinates on tasks which should have properly been assigned by Plaintiff.

22. This caused confusion as to who actually directly supervised these male subordinates (it was Plaintiff who was their direct supervisor, not Gregan) and cultivated a culture of a lack of respect for Plaintiff and her position as a supervisor.

23. Gregan made negative comments about Plaintiff to regional and corporate high-level employees of Defendants such as she was “out of the loop.”

24. Plaintiff frequently expressed concerns with Defendants’ management about Gregan’s abuses, bullying, accusations, and discriminatory treatment, but nothing meaningful was done to address Plaintiff’s concerns.

25. Plaintiff specifically frequently raised concerns of Gregan’s treatment to Underwood who agreed that Gregan was discriminatory against females, but instead of meaningfully addressing Plaintiff’s concerns in any way, informed Plaintiff there was “not much” that could be done as Defendants were a “good old boys club,” and advised Plaintiff to be “patient,” and “resilient.”

26. In or about April of 2022, Plaintiff formally escalated concerns of gender discrimination to Defendants’ management and made overwhelming clear that: (a) Plaintiff wanted her work situation remedied; and (b) there was what Plaintiff perceived to be blatant gender discrimination at Defendants.

27. To insulate itself from potential legal claims or liability, Defendant ostensibly retained the law firm of Littler Mendelson. This law firm, through its counsel, engaged in what it referenced as an “investigation” and attempted to dissuade Plaintiff from her beliefs of gender discrimination (through such counsel).

28. Following Plaintiff’s serious escalations of gender discrimination and information that human resources and Underwood had not resolved her work environment under Gregan, Underwood began retaliating against Plaintiff and acted very upset with and cold towards Plaintiff.

29. In the spring of 2022 (pre-escalation of Plaintiff's gender complaints), Underwood discussed her intent to elevate/promote Plaintiff's role and to have Plaintiff work directly with Underwood's team (indicating Plaintiff was a tremendous asset to the company). Post-complaints in the spring of 2022, Underwood exclaimed "why would you make these types of complaints while I was considering moving you to my team?" Her consideration of Plaintiff for elevation/promotion immediately ceased.

30. As soon as the gender discrimination investigation concluded, Plaintiff was terminated by Respondent effective May 20, 2022.

31. However, on paper, Defendant indicated it was paying Plaintiff through July of 2022 (as if employed only for compensation purposes).

32. While Gregan was nasty to Plaintiff on a continuing basis for years, Plaintiff still received at least meets expectations evaluations and did not have progressive discipline.

33. Moreover, Plaintiff had no warning of any basis for her pretextual termination from employment.

34. Upon termination, Plaintiff was told there were some equipment problems in her plant, and she was being held accountable – and as a result – Defendants decided to terminate her employment.

35. This is clearly pretextual, as every plant has mechanical or equipment problems at times, which in this instance were not the fault or doing of Plaintiff, and attributing this to Plaintiff without warning was retaliatory.

36. Further and even more telling of clear pretext, these alleged equipment problems occurred prior to the Spring 2022 conversations wherein Underwood discussed her intent to elevate/promote Plaintiff (i.e. even knowing of these equipment problems, pre-complaint of discrimination, Underwood still conveyed her intention to elevate/promote Plaintiff) and prior to Plaintiff's complaints, yet Plaintiff was not disciplined or terminated at any point between the alleged equipment problems and her formal complaint of gender discrimination and hostile work environment.

37. Additionally, Plaintiff was offered 12 weeks of severance compensation (effective after her July pay end date), which was not pursuant to any document or policy of Defendants – solely in exchange for Plaintiff's waiver of legal claims. This is well established evidence of discrimination, retaliation, and pretext.³

38. Plaintiff believes and therefore avers that she was subjected to a hostile work environment, retaliated against, and ultimately terminated from her employment with Defendants in violation of Title VII.

Count I
Violations of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (“Title VII”)
([1] Gender Discrimination [2] Hostile Work Environment & [3] Retaliation)

39. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

40. While employed by Defendant, Plaintiff was personally subjected to a hostile work environment because of her gender through disparate and demeaning treatment, as well as discriminatory harassment.

³ See e.g. Staffieri v. Northwestern Human Servs., 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 72115 at 14-15 (E.D. Pa. 2013)(an employer who offered severance at the time of termination when policies did not require upon condition of waiving claim supported finding of pretext among other facts); Bartlett v. NIBCO Inc., 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 28072 (N.D. Ind. 2011)(finding that a severance agreement offered contemporaneously to when the employee was terminated was “probative on the issue of whether NIBCO’s motive for terminating Bartlett was [false].”); EEOC v. Republic Servs., Inc., 640 F. Supp. 2d 1267 (D. Nev. 2009)(denying summary judgment and considering as evidence in wrongful termination case that a company would offer severance when an employee is supposedly terminated in a manner that doesn’t warrant severance per an explicit company policy); Karl v. City of Mountlake Terrace, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 59085 (W.D. Wash. 2011)(severance agreements are admissible in retaliation claims when made contemporaneous to termination, as they are not governed by Fed.R.Evid. 408); Brandy v. Maxim Healthcare Servs., Inc., 2012 WL 5268365, at *2 (N.D. Ind. 2012)(holding that severance agreements offered at the time of termination do not fall under Rule 408 because they are offered before a dispute arises, regardless if the employer “anticipated the severance agreement curtailing any potential future litigation.”).

41. The harassment that Plaintiff was subjected to as a female employee of Defendant was severe and pervasive and interfered with her ability to perform her job tasks.

42. Plaintiff complained of and objected to the aforesaid gender-related discriminatory and disparate treatment multiple times to members of Defendants' management and HR in advance of her termination, and asked for the same to cease; however, her concerns were never remedied, and the discriminatory harassment/retaliation only grew worse.

43. Shortly after her complaints of discrimination, Plaintiff was terminated for pretextual reasons, and offered an unsolicited severance in exchange for waiving her legal rights against Defendants.

44. These actions constitute discrimination, retaliation, and a hostile work environment under Title VII.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that this Court enter an Order providing that:

A. Defendants are to compensate Plaintiff, reimburse Plaintiff and make Plaintiff whole for any and all pay and benefits Plaintiff would have received had it not been for Defendants' illegal actions, including but not limited to past lost earnings, future lost earnings, salary, pay increases, bonuses, medical and other benefits, training, promotions, pension, and seniority. Plaintiff should be accorded those benefits illegally withheld from the date she first suffered retaliation at the hands of Defendants until the date of verdict;

B. Plaintiff is to be awarded punitive damages, as permitted by applicable law(s) alleged asserted herein, in an amount believed by the Court or trier of fact to be appropriate to punish Defendant for its willful, deliberate, malicious and outrageous conduct and to deter Defendant or other employers from engaging in such misconduct in the future;

C. Plaintiff is to be accorded any and all other equitable and legal relief as the Court deems just, proper and appropriate including for emotional distress;

D. Plaintiff is to be awarded the costs and expenses of this action and reasonable legal fees as provided by applicable federal and state law;

E. Any verdict in favor of Plaintiff is to be molded by the Court to maximize the financial recovery available to Plaintiff in light of the caps on certain damages set forth in applicable federal law; and

F. Plaintiff's claims are to receive a trial by jury to the extent allowed by applicable law. Plaintiff has also endorsed this demand on the caption of this Complaint in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 38(b).

Respectfully submitted,
